COUTURE FOR A CAUSE: YORKVILLE FASHION SHOW 2024

On August 1st, 2024, the Yorkville Village Park was transformed into a breathtaking runway for the inaugural Couture for a Cause Yorkville Fashion Show. Organized by the Hairdressers for Love & Peace Foundation, this event marked a significant milestone in both fashion and community engagement.

The evening celebrated the power of hairdressing and its profound impact on society. Daniel from Salon DANIEL, who celebrated 50 years in the industry, led this initiative to give back to the designers, the Yorkville community, and the hairdressers who inspire and uplift others through their craft.

Over 1,000 guests gathered to witness 60 models showcasing stunning couture from top Canadian designers along a 2,000 ft runway that weaved through the heart of Yorkville. The event not only highlighted the beauty and talent within the fashion industry but also supported a vital cause—raising awareness and funds for the Centre for Addiction and Mental Health (CAMH).

COMMUNITY IMPACT: SUPPORTING CAMH

Couture for a Cause: Yorkville Fashion Show 2024 not only brought together fashion and artistry but also had a profound impact on the community. Couture for a Cause raised critical funds for the Centre for Addiction and Mental Health (CAMH), ensuring support for mental health services. We were able to donate $10,000 to CAMH, which will go towards opening a hair salon within the facility for patients, allowing hairdressers to volunteer their services. This powerful alignment of fashion, hairdressing, and philanthropy made a lasting impression on attendees and the community.

A FASHION EXPERIENCE IN ICONIC YORKVILLE

CELEBRATING CANADIAN COUTURE

The event showcased an eclectic mix of Canadian designers, each bringing their unique vision and artistry to life. Couture for a Cause featured stunning collections by David Dixon, Mr. Saturday, Shelli Oh, Demascare, Adam X Atelier, and Leone Napoli. These designers illuminated the runway with creativity, diversity, and purpose, with each collection delivering powerful messages that resonated with the audience.

ENTERTAINMENT & PERFORMANCES

The night was made unforgettable with musical performances by Kevin Hearn of the Barenaked Ladies, opera singers Stella Leonetti and Francesco Celestino, and the vibrant beats of DJ Jones. Their performances added a sense of grandeur and artistry, enhancing the overall experience and bringing the audience together for a night of celebration and giving.

Yorkville Village Park became a 2,000-foot fashion runway on Aug. 1, courtesy of Daniel Florio, president of the Hairdressers for Love and Peace Foundation, and Couture for a Cause executive director Ada Liko. The event brought together six hair salons, seven Yorkville restaurants, and 60 models with collections from Canadian designers David Dixon, Mr. Saturday, Demascare, Adam X Atelier, Shelli Oh and Yorkville boutique Leone Napoli. Hosted by Toronto Fashion Incubator's Susan Langdon and Florio, the evening, in support of CAMH, featured performances by Kevin Hearn (of Barenaked Ladies), Stella Leonetti and Francesco Celestino.

PRESS & MEDIA COVERAGE

With more than 1,000 attendees and an influential presence, Couture for a Cause drew significant media attention. Outlets like The Toronto Star, BlogTO, and local influencers spotlighted the event, spreading the word about this powerful initiative. Our partnerships with the press helped amplify the event's mission, creating broader awareness for CAMH.

COUTURE FOR A CAUSE/ YORKVILLE FASHION SHOW 2025

JULY/
30/2025

Following the tremendous success of our inaugural event, Couture for a Cause returns in 2025 with even greater ambition. Set for Wednesday, July 30th, 2025, this year's show will once again transform Yorkville Village into a high-fashion runway, continuing our mission to merge style, community and philanthropy.

Our 2025 edition promises an expanded lineup of top Canadian designers and even more immersive experiences for our audience.

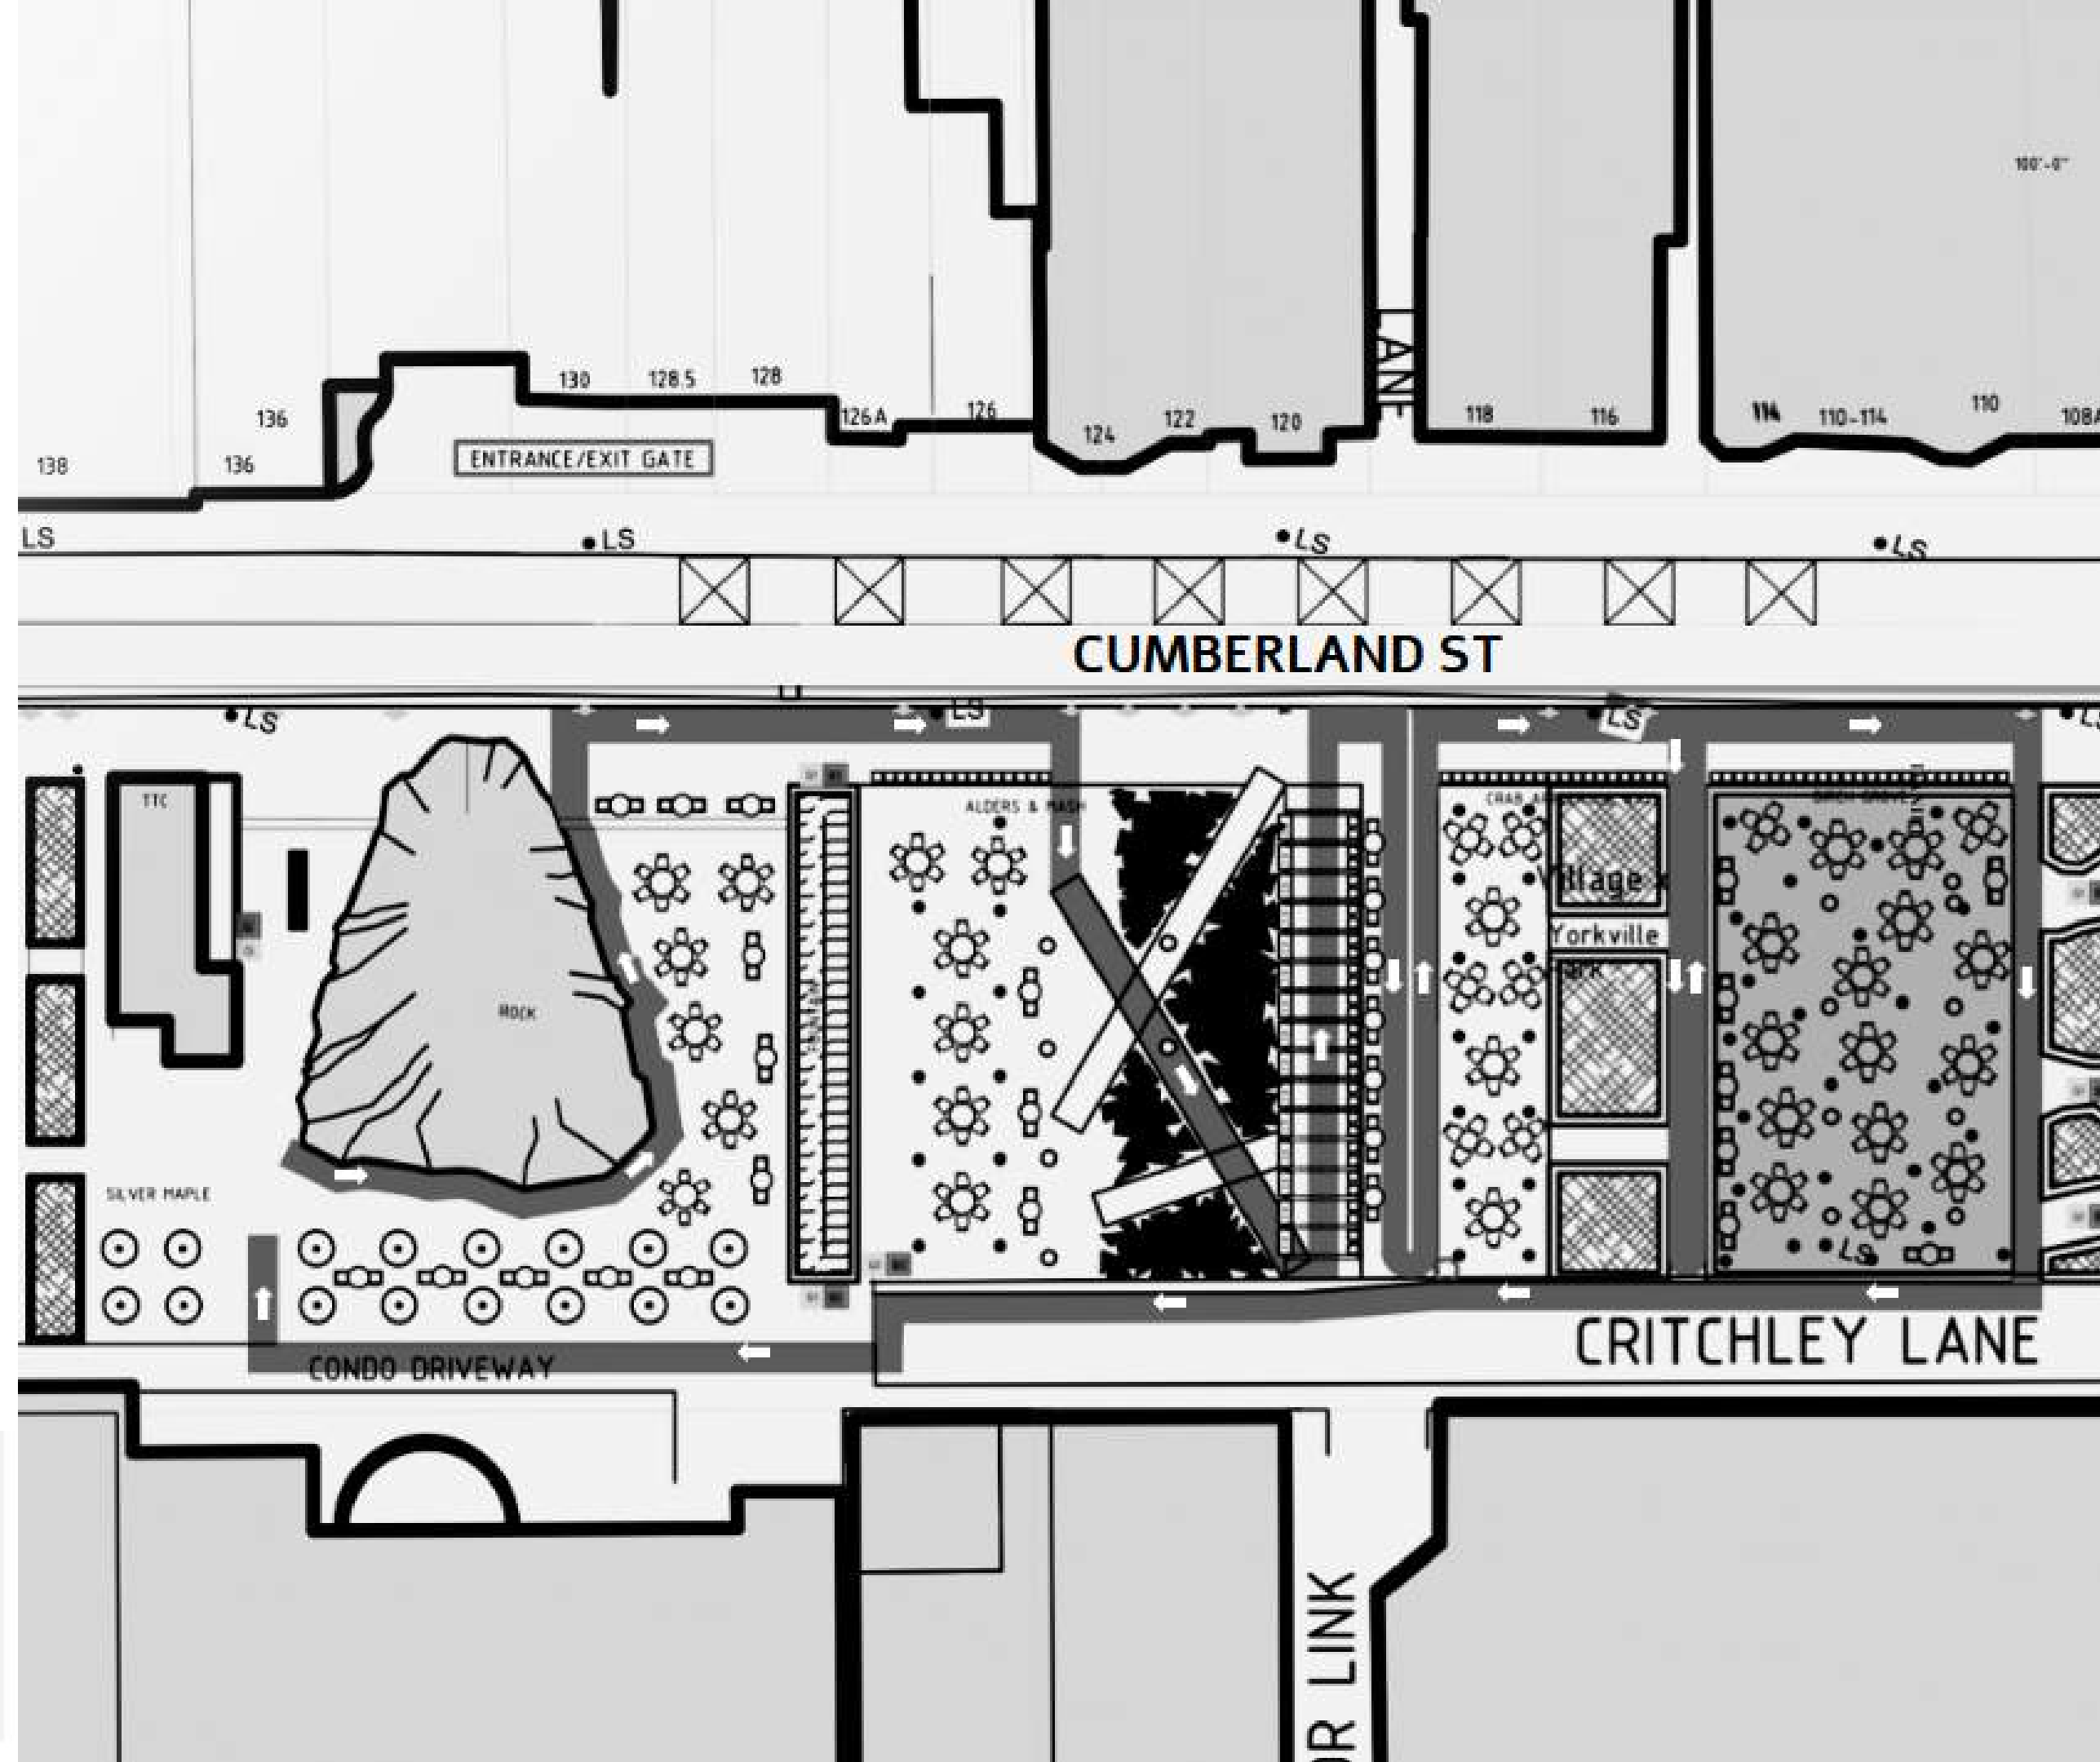

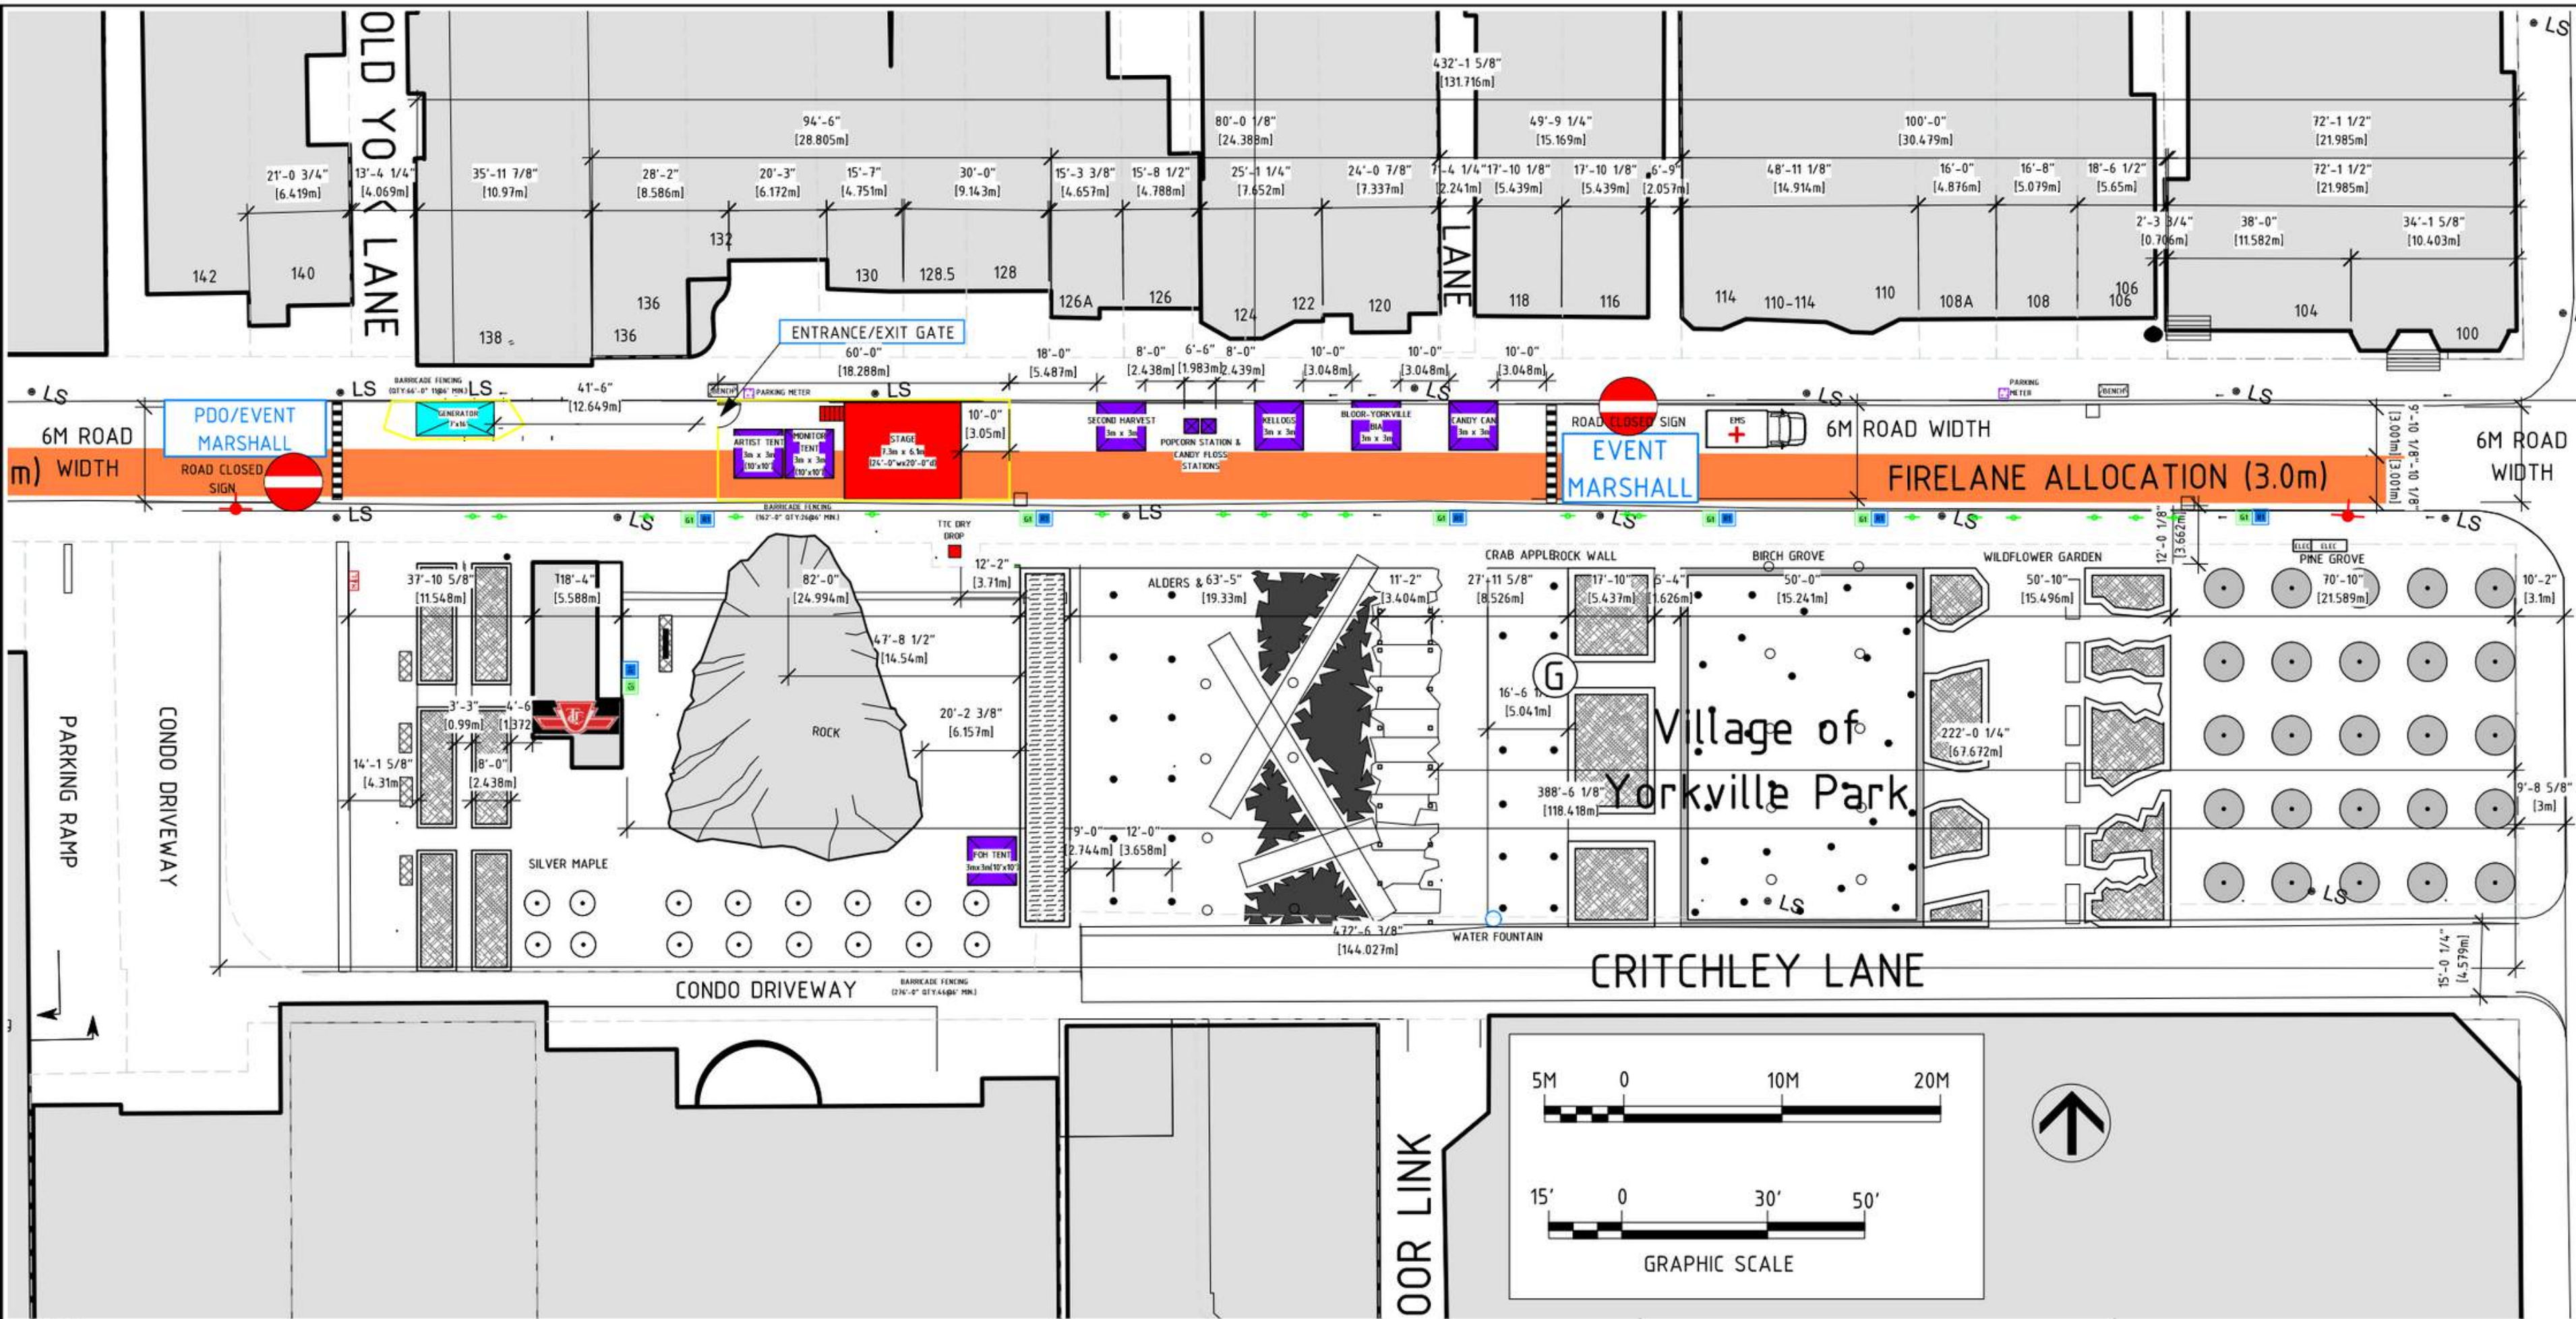

COUTURE FOR A CAUSE/ WHAT IS NEW FOR THE YORKVILLE FASHION SHOW 2025

This year, we're elevating the experience by closing Cumberland Street and not only bringing back Toronto's longest-ever runway but also introducing a fully immersive environment. Attendees can look forward to an interactive experience featuring exotic cars, fashion and art vendors, and much more.

OUR MISSION

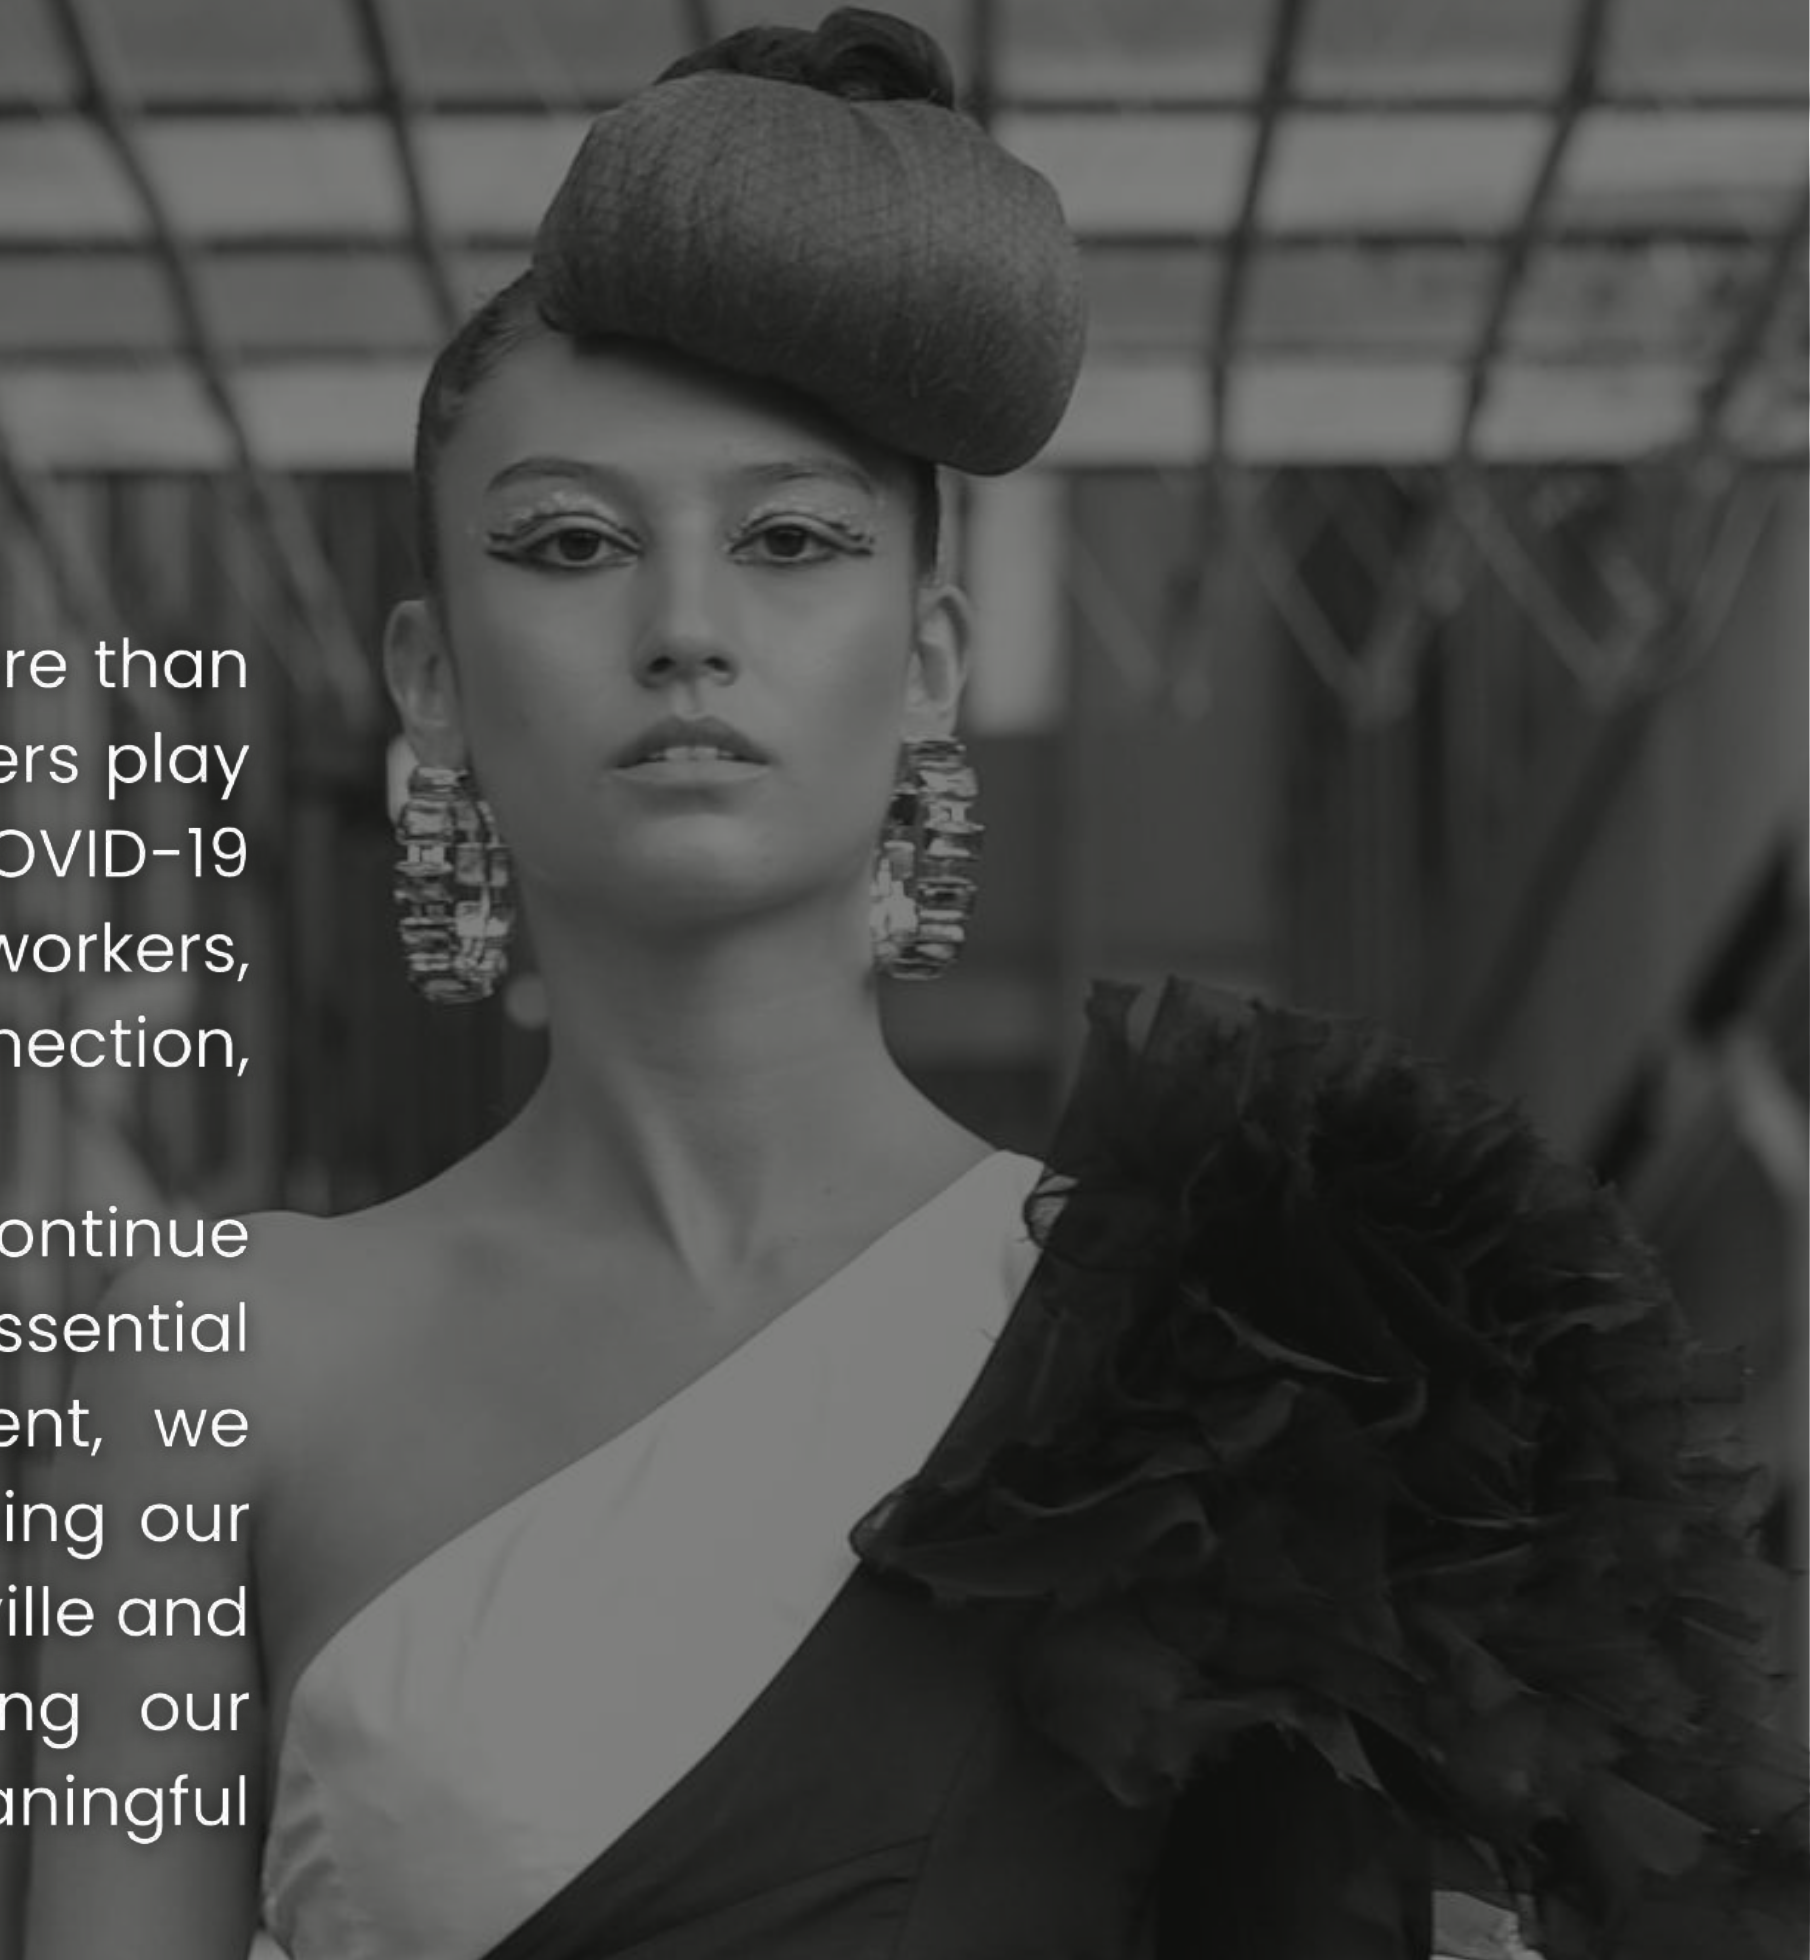

Elevating Minds Through Beauty

The Yorkville Fashion Show 2025's mission is to harness the power of community and fashion to make a significant impact, with a dedication to supporting mental health initiatives through fundraising for CAMH. Our commitment to this cause reflects our understanding of its critical importance, especially given the ongoing need for community support in underfunded mental health sectors. By bringing together Yorkville's local businesses, salons, designers, and restaurants, we aim to cultivate a strong community spirit, celebrating fashion while fostering enduring connections and collaborations within the neighbourhood. This event is more than a showcase of style; it's a movement towards building a stronger, more connected Yorkville community for a cause that touches us all.

HAIR DRESSERS ARE ESSENTIAL

The success of Couture for a Cause 2024 highlighted more than just fashion—it shone a light on the pivotal role hairdressers play in supporting mental health and well-being. During the COVID-19 pandemic, hairdressers were not classified as essential workers, despite being a lifeline for individuals seeking connection, confidence, and care.

As we move forward with Couture for a Cause 2025, we continue to advocate for the recognition of hairdressers as essential contributors to community wellness. Through this event, we celebrate the artistry and impact of hairstyling, reaffirming our commitment to promoting holistic well-being within Yorkville and beyond. Let's champion this cause together, elevating our profession while giving back to the community in meaningful ways.

Centre for Addiction and Mental Health

A core objective of the event is to contribute meaningfully to the community. In line with this, the Yorkville Fashion Show 2025 has pledged its support to raise funds for CAMH (The Centre for Addiction and Mental Health), an institution at the forefront of providing essential mental health support. This cause holds profound significance, especially considering CAMH's ongoing struggle with underfunding, making community support imperative. By aligning with this cause, we aim to make a tangible difference in the lives of individuals in need, underscoring our commitment to community welfare and mental health advocacy.
